REQUEST FOR TEMPORARY ELECTROLOGIST LICENSE

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your request for a Temporary License as an Electrologist. This form contains relevant information about how to obtain a temporary license in North Carolina.

The requirements for application are pursuant to the statutes, rules, and regulations set forth by the NC General Assembly and the NC Board of Barber and Electrolysis Examiners. Please read the rules and instructions prior to applying.

It is the applicant's responsibility to inform the board of name and/or address changes. Please submit such changes in writing to the address listed above or via email.

Every effort will be taken to process your request in a timely manner. If you have any questions, please contact the board at the information listed above. We look forward to licensing you in North Carolina.

Requirements for Request for Temporary License

This is not a comprehensive listing of the rules related to this request. Please refer to the rules as noted above.

- All applicants must be 21 years of age.
- An applicant for an electrologist license who is required to take the Board's examination and has complied with 21 NCAC 06U .0102 (application for licensure) may request a temporary license.
- The request may be submitted with the initial application for an electrologist license or at any time thereafter.
- A written statement by a licensed electrologist or electrology instructor must be submitted with this request stating that the applicant will be practicing in this individual's office and that this individual has agreed to supervise the applicant's practice.

- The holder of a temporary license shall practice only under the supervision of another licensed electrologist or electrology instructor.
- A temporary license cannot be valid for more than six (6) months and only during the dates stated on the license pursuant with G.S. 86B-54. All temporary licenses will expire one (1) month after the next scheduled examination.
- An incomplete or partial request form will be rejected by the board.
